

Welcome to

BICCOL REGION

By Derek Linesis

The Bicol region is one of the best regions in the Philippines. It's a popular destination rich in culture and history. It has unique attractions like the Popular Mayon volcano, The Egg Yolk Island, and so much more.

Beaches

Bagasbas Beach

Bagasbas Beach is one of the perfect surfing spots in the Philippines. It has strong waves, so it's great for surfing. It has grey sand, but don't worry, it's clean. This beach is located in Daet, Camarines Norte.

Subic Beach

Subic Beach is one of the unique beaches in Bicol. This beach has pink sand and crystal-clear water. It's the beach where you can relax and be peaceful. This beach is located in Matnog, Sorsogon.

Watersports and Aquaparks

Camsur Watersports Complex (CWC)

Camsur Watersports Complex (CWC) is one of the coolest watersports in Bicol. It is a place where you can have fun. You can do kayaking, wakeboarding, and windsurfing. Also, it is way more fun to play with your friends and family in the aquapark. This place is located in Pili, Camarines Sur.

Natural places

The Mayon Volcano

The Mayon Volcano is one of the most popular tourist attractions in the Philippines. Guinness World Records said it has the perfect cone shape, making it the "Perfect Cone.". This volcano is the most active in the Philippines. Some people take ATV rides on the volcanic dirt roads and small streams. This stunning volcano is located in Albay.

Bulusan Lake

Bulusan Lake is one of the beautiful lakes here in the Bicol Region. It has deep emerald-green waters and is surrounded by wondrously lush flora and fauna from its surrounding rainforest, making it a worthwhile tourist destination. When you row a boat in this lake, it feels like a jungle. This location is in Bulusan, Sorsogon.

The Egg Yolk Island

Corangon Shoal, also known as “Egg Yolk Island,” is one of the strange islands but one of the tourist spots in Albay. It was formed by pulverized corals thousands of years ago. This island has smooth-colored beige sand. It is surrounded by deep blue waters with huge waves splashing. This location is at Tiwi, Albay.

If you want a super fun vacation in the Philippines, visit the Bicol region?
