

The Philippines

Have you ever wondered how it feels to be on a wonderful beach with clear water? Or where to find the perfect cliffs and malls? And go to fantastic museums? Well, the Philippines is the place to go. With all of the nice people who understand English in the Philippines, they can help you find all the places you'd love to visit and enjoy.

Boracay Beach

As we all know, the Philippines has some of the best beaches in the world. Most people go to the Philippines because of this. For example, Boracay Beach is well-known for its white sand. You can snorkel and paddle there to see all the fish and wonderful corals. It has sparkling clear turquoise water with a salty, beachy smell, of course! Boracay beach is also for beach parties!!

Chocolate Hills

There are approximately 1,260 hills in the Chocolate Hills and possibly up to 1,776 that spread all over the Philippines. They are covered with green grass. They turn brown during the dry season, but they give incredible views. The reason we call them Chocolate Hills is because when the green grass turns brown, it looks like there is chocolate.

SM Mall of Asia

There are a lot of malls in the Philippines, but do you know the biggest mall in the country? The biggest mall in the Philippines is SM Mall of Asia. The mall features the Philippines first Olympic-sized ice rink, located on the third floor. It has a space for spectators with about 200-300 seats. It covers 1800 sq. m.

Museums

The National Museum is number one in the Philippines. It shows the country's top institution of art. Meanwhile, the oldest museum in the Philippines is the University of Santo Tomas Museum. It was established in 1869.

Now you should truly believe that the Philippines is where you should go, have fun, relax, and explore. Would you want to miss out on a fantastic adventure? Get a trip to the Philippines to have fun.
