

Once upon a time, there was one student named Yuji Itadori who found a random finger, so he ate it and gained monster power, turning his hands with mouths

One day, while he tried to attend class, his mouth-handed thing controlled his hand, detecting a monster from outside the school. He went flying from the window and went towards the evil cursed monster attacking the city.

All of a sudden,
the cursed evil
monster sensed
something so he shot a powerful
ability to the sky
and hit Yuji Itadori, sending him towards a building.

The next morning, Yuji Itadori woke up unprepared. His hand sensed something more powerful than him.

