Introduction

Dubai's
flag

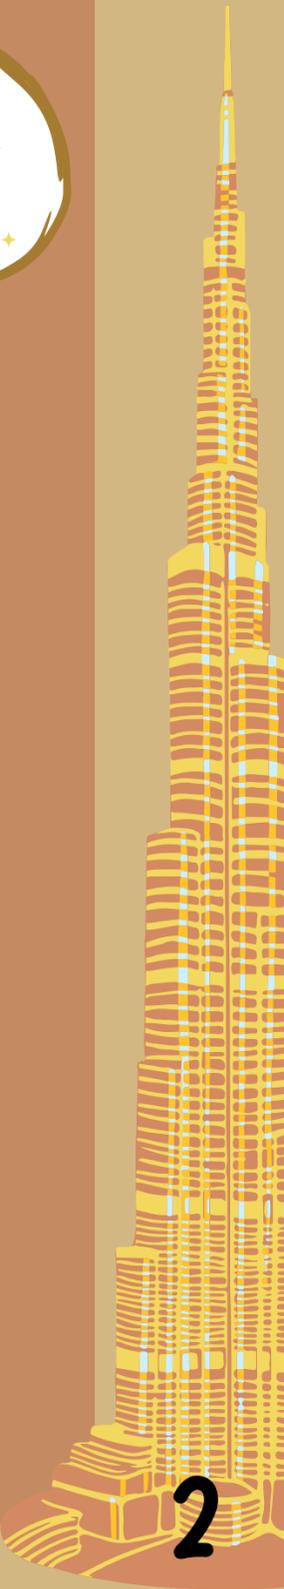

Dubai is a wonderful place everyone should visit! It is a very unique city to explore, unlike any other. You will see the beautiful-looking Burj Khalifa, a famous landmark. You will explore the unique cultures and taste yummy foods. You will get the question “Why should I visit?” answered. And you will discover other places to have fun at and explore Dubai’s uniqueness.

Why to visit

Dubai is such a wonderful place to visit, but why should you? There are lots of famous landmarks there, and all of them are fantastic. First of all, you must go to the Burj Khalifa. It is the tallest building in the world, and there are also spectacular water shows hosted there. Secondly, there is the Dubai Frame. It is also the largest frame in the world. It is a frame you can walk on that is really cool and worth visiting! Finally, come to Dubai! It will show all those things and more. Some cities are popular and cool, but Dubai is on another level, showing you the best places in existence. Please visit this amazing city one day!

The Burj Khalifa

The Burj Khalifa is an incredibly tall tower, so let's talk more about it. It's the tallest building in the whole world! The owner of the Burj Khalifa is Emaar (a real estate company). The building's budget estimate was around 1.5 billion dollars! You can go and see and go in the actual building itself; it has spectacular views that are breathtaking. The Burj Khalifa is an iconic landmark of Dubai, representing its growth. Mind-blowing water shows (and the biggest in the world, too) are hosted in front of the Burj Khalifa. It is a man-made lake called the Dubai Fountain; it is famous and glorious with its neon lighting.

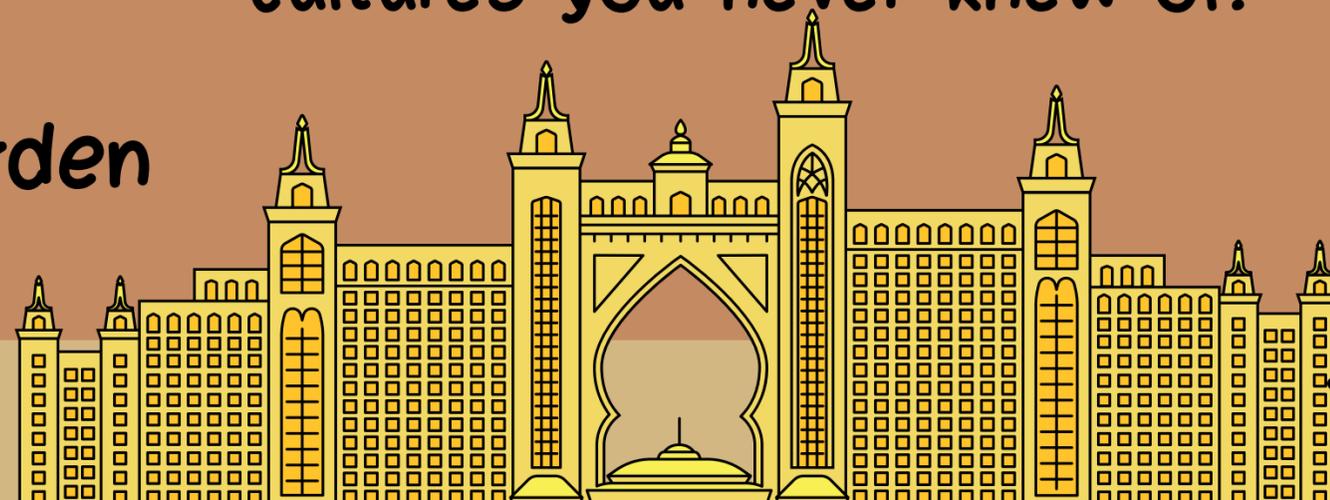

Where to go and what to see

Dubai is a gigantic city with places to explore, so let's see where to go and what to see. Firstly, you should visit the Burj Khalifa. As the first paragraph has said about its many incredible features. Secondly, a vibrant place that is family-friendly would be Miracle Gardens.

Where you would see a garden full of flowers and happiness (the biggest garden too!). Thirdly, you should visit Atlantis waterpark. And you would see that it is the world's largest waterpark with slides and everlasting fun. Finally, you should explore Dubai's local towns. They may sound less-fun but they let you discover tasty foods and new cultures you never knew of!

Dubai's cultures and foods

Allah

الله

Dubai has different interesting cultures and foods to explore, which is what this paragraph will tell you about. To start with, the main culture in Dubai is the Islamic culture. Their God's name is called "Allah" meaning God in Arabic. They believe he is the one and only God and no one else is. There is a tradition called "Ramadan" where they don't eat from dawn until sunset and they eat before dawn and after sunset. But obviously food is an important thing in Dubai. You can't go without trying it. Also, there are loads of different (but tasty) foods in Dubai, such as:

- Chebab (emirati-style pancakes)
- Al Harees (a type of porridge)
- Al Machboos (rice with chicken kabsa)
- Tharid (a stew with chicken and vegetables often served with flatbread)
- Knafeh (a sweet cheesy pastry)

These are unique and mouthwatering foods from Dubai. You can try and explore all these tasty foods in Dubai. And if you love chocolate, then you should try Dubai's viral chocolate! It is a thick chocolate bar decorated with green and yellow lines, and inside of it is some crunchy pistachio. So, you should come to Dubai and explore its yummy foods and unique cultures.

Dubai's uniqueness

Dubai is very unique but how unique is it? Well, Dubai has broken loads of world records that other cities haven't, so that's one unique thing about Dubai. Another thing that is unique about Dubai is its heavenly foods. There the foods are delicious with mind-blowing flavours in different dishes. Why shouldn't you have a try? Lastly, Dubai is the only city that has a seven-star restaurant, which is named "Burj Al Arab," meaning in English "Tower of Arabs." That is the uniqueness of Dubai.

Conclusion

In conclusion, Dubai is an extraordinary city that is famous and popular. With vibrant cultures and heavenly foods. The iconic Burj Khalifa represents its growth. You will have an important question about Dubai answered. And Dubai has lots of uniqueness. It also has loads of must-see destinations that are worth exploring!
